10. [] Talked with Jim Ray in Representative George Mahon's office requesting that he advise Mr. Mahon that with respect to the analysis of the Soviet wheat article furnished to Mr. Mahon on 30 March, Mr. Mahon could state in effect that as a member of the CIA Subcommittee he had asked the Agency for this information and had received the analysis.

11. [] Talked to Mr. Sullivan in Senator Brewster's office looking toward a possible breakfast meeting at the Agency with Senator Brewster and senior Agency officials. Sullivan is to advise the exact date.

[]

13. [] Talked with Miss Becker in the office of Senator Howard Cannon. She indicated that Senator Cannon had been very busy and had suggested that rather than his coming out to the Agency that the appropriate people come by his office next week. It was agreed that we would check on this to set a firm time next Monday.

14. [] Talked with Herbert Roback, Staff Administrator, Subcommittee on Military Operations, House Government Operations Committee, and received from him some correspondence dealing with a [] firm reported to be manufacturing missiles to be sent to certain Arab states. Roback inquired if we had any information on this firm. We will look into this and advise.

15. [] Jay Sourwine, Senate Internal Security Subcommittee, telephoned. A Colonel Wennerstrom goes on trial in Stockholm as a Soviet spy very soon. Sourwine was asked to inquire whether it would be possible to have someone who understands Swedish watch these proceedings and the Swedish newspapers and let the Subcommittee know what information is brought out during the trial which concerns the U. S. Mr. Sourwine felt we would be having someone following this matter anyhow and wondered if information could just be passed along to them. I told him we would be back in touch with him.
